OREGON, MO., JANUARY 5, 1871 OUR EX-CONGRESSMAN HEARD FROM.

Since his defeat for a Congressional nomination at the hands of the Republican Convention of this District Col. Joel F. Asper has gradually drifted into the ranks of the Democratic party. As long as the party gave him position, and supported him in his aspirations for office, he was loud in the support of Republican principles; but no sooner had the party expressed a preference two parties about as soon as he took his for some one also, when Mr. Asper flies seat in the House, made a speech in for some one else, when Mr. Asper flies

We supposed when we supported Mr. Asper for re-nomination in the convention that we had a man of steadfastness and of principle before us, who would "stick to a truth" even in personal adof running as an independent candidate, and then withdrawing, and his recent efforts at endeavoring to run the so-called "Liberal party" in this State, it is clear that we were mistaken in the

On Association. Christmas day there was an outbreak of the Ku-Klux in that locality, resulting in the death of a number of negroes, The account states that a large number of armed men turned out in pursuit of negroes. Patrols were placed near the town and every traveler halted and ques-tloned. All business is suspended and request that they be published.

Adjourned ustil the first Saturday, known how many negroes are killed, but Edward Wilder who left Marshall at 11 o'clock saw the dead bodies of two hanging by the neck, three lying in the road and one terribly wounded, having his shoulder shot away. a point in Saline county where I had been living for nearly a year past, to come to Sedalia. I was on foot and with a pack on my back was traveling on the Glasgow road which I struck about four mile from Saline City. At that point I heard they were having lively times in Marshall and it seemed to be understood that the negroes were getting cleaned out. When within about eight miles of Marshall I came upon two negroes hanging to a tree. Both were dead and were hanging by the neck about twenty feet apart.

About a mile and a half further on I saw. a lasge colored man lying by the road-side. Thinking he might be alive I walked up to him but found him stone dead. His stomach was torn open and his howels protruding as if he had been shot more than once, or probably with a heavy load of buck-shot. The whole lower part of his vest and upper part of his pantatoons were shot away. I con-tinued on my way towards Marshail about two miles, when I came upon two more negroes lying stiff and dead in the road, both of them shot through the bodies. Being alone and in some alarm I hurried on. At the R.
